Q. What does Stenger, Glass, Hagstrom, Lindars & Luele, LLP do?

A. Stenger, Glass, Hagstrom, Lindars & Luele, LLP is one of the largest, multifaceted law firms in the Mid-Hudson Valley. Our attorneys have experience in a wide range of practice areas, including civil litigation; family and matrimonial law; estate planning, including elder law, asset protection, and special needs planning; business law; commercial and residential real estate; personal injury; criminal defense; tax grievances to obtain a reduction in land tax; land use, and municipal law; and New York State and Federal liquor licensing and hospitality law.

Q. What are the benefits of retaining a full-service law firm?

A. A full-service law firm has the resources and insight to understand the scope of each case even when cases involve more than one area of law. At Stenger, Glass, Hagstrom, Lindars & Luele, LLP, the legal experience required for your circumstances is available to you within our firm, without you having to shop around for several unassociated attorneys. Our attorneys can utilize not only their own knowledge, but also that of their colleagues, in helping to design solutions to legal issues that you are facing. This provides for improved efficiency and results for our clients.

Q. What distinguishes the attorneys of Stenger, Glass, Hagstrom, Lindars & Luele, LLP from those in other firms?

A. We are big enough to have attorneys with the expertise to handle your needs, but small enough to provide the individual attention each client deserves. We pride ourselves on having five exceptional partners — Ken Stenger is a 2024 Top Lawyer for Commercial Litigation; Jessica Glass is a 2024 Top Lawyer for Real Estate Law; Karen Hagstrom is a 2024 Top Lawyer in Land Use Development; and A.J. Luele is a 2024 Top Attorney in Family Law. Partner, Ian C. Lindars specializes in Municipal Law and Landlord/Tenant Law. Stenger, Glass, Hagstrom, Lindars & Luele, LLP has represented many well-known, high-profile organizations and businesses, as well as numerous individuals, throughout New York State. At Stenger, Glass, Hagstrom, Lindars & Luele, LLP, we take a team approach that allows us to comprehensively achieve immediate and long-term objectives for our clients.
